Fashion Director Finds

FASHION DIRECTOR FINDS

This season, Fashion Director Brooke Jaffe is loving the juxtaposition of decadent pieces with urban-influenced staples for a new take on tough-luxe style. Think edgy bomber jackets over little lace dresses, preppy sweaters paired with tattered jeans and refined plaids layered with sleek leathers.

“The dressed-up street vibe of the urban look features pieces you can be comfortable in and still look polished.”

—Brooke Jaffe, Fashion Director, Ready-to-Wear

FASHION DIRECTOR FINDS

This season Fashion Director Erica Russo is excited about the over-the-top opulence she saw on the world's chicest catwalks. Here are her hand-selected pieces to master the of-the-moment look.

“Audacious color and luxurious textures add OPULENCE to a fall wardrobe. These pieces can transform a look.”

Get the vino (and the conversation) flowing with all the essentials—innovative, easy-to-use bottle openers, elegant carafes to aerate your reds and, of course, plenty of glasses.

SHOP GLASSWARE & BARWARE

A cheese platter is a must, so provide a variety of tastes and textures to harmonize with your choice of wines, and lay out ample serveware and knives to keep the flavors distinct.

SHOP CHEESE BOARDS

A savory dish like paella, which pairs well with a luscious, full-bodied Tempranillo, turns a nice evening with friends into the most-Instagrammed foodie event of the year.

SHOP COOKWARE

If you're hosting a smaller event or want to sample a few vintages beforehand, use the Coravin—it leaves the cork intact so you can have a glass now and still age your wine naturally.

STYLE HACK STATEMENT COATS

1 DOUBLE-BREADED

A double-breasted jacket gives you the appearance of a slimmer waist, so it's a good option for guys who haven't hit the gym in a while. Wear it a bit oversized.

2 PATTERN PLAY

A coat with a pattern (like herringbone) feels instantly elevated. Our favorite features a big flap collar to pop up when the mercury drops.

3 PEAK LAPELS

From corner-office titans to red-carpet regulars, peak lapels have always conveyed power. So they're the perfect addition to turn heads on your next winter coat.

The new and noteworthy labels we're coveting right now.

DEREK LAM 10 CROSBY

A runway favorite, Derek Lam is known for sleek silhouettes and an eye for detail. We're excited to launch his new sportswear collection combining athletic-inspired pieces with on-trend flourishes.

MCQ ALEXANDER MCQUEEN

Take the signature McQueen glam-rock aesthetic and infuse it with a younger, more rebellious spirit and you have McQ. We love the blend of feminine silhouettes and hint of gothic edge with contrasting textures, remixed plaids and plenty of glitter, of course.

ALESSANDRA CHAMONIX

Designer Alessandra Battistella transforms the utilitarian army anorak into the ultimate cool-girl accessory—think playful details like a pink fur lining that delivers both style and warmth.

CINQ À SEPT

The French call the hours between 5 and 7 PM cinq à sept—the time when everything glows in the light of the setting sun. This vibrant new label captures this energy with looks that have an irresistible ease and a romantic touch.

MONSE

In the hands of Laura Kim and Fernando Garcia of Monse, the basic button-down shirt is reimagined as a stunning collection of dresses, jumpsuits and stylish ensembles that feel totally fresh and fun to wear.

The bucket bag, perhaps the season's most sought-after accessory, is this Parisian designer's pièce de résistance. She adds her own flair with '70s-inspired prints, metal accents and hand-braided leather.

SARA BATTAGLIA

Plush leather decked out with luxurious hardware is a signature of designer Sara Battaglia's standout collection. This season, her whimsical take on fringe will make this the bag you keep grabbing.

A favorite among the fashion pack, Jocelyn's lineup of so-now outerwear (hello, camo and colorful fur!) will instantly amp up your style cred.
